Lily Balfour has spent her entire life under the shadow of financial ruin, and she s determined to save her family in the only way available to women-by marrying well. When the Duchess of Roxburghe, Lily s godmother, announces she s found the perfect match for Lily, the handsome, dashing, and extremely wealthy Earl of Huntley, Lily hopes they ll fall wildly in love, marry, and that his wealth will save her family. But when Prince Piotr Wulfinski, the poorest of the Russian princes, walks into the Duchess s ballroom and sweeps a hot, possessive glance over her, Lily knows she s in big trouble. Marry the safe, handsome, and wealthy Earl, or the dangerous, rakish, but poor Prince? To make the right choice, Lily must decide if she ll listen to her heart or her head.
