

A Bullet for Cinderella

By John D MacDonald

Whodunit?, 2017. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged. Language: English . Brand New. HER VENEER WAS BIG CITY. But one look and you knew that her instincts were straight out of the river shack she came from. I watched her as she toyed with the man, laughing, her tumbled hair like raw blue-black silk, her brown shoulders bare. Eyes deep-set, a girl with a gypsy look. So this was the girl I had risked my life to find. This was the girl who was going to lead me to a buried fortune in stolen loot. A POW in the Korean War, Tal Howard returns to find himself restless. He is haunted by the tale told to him by a friend who didn't make it home: a stolen fortune that was hidden away in the soldier's hometown with the only clue a girl named Cinderella. Tal decides to leave everything behind and try to find the money. He arrives to discover another POW has the same idea, a man who was feared in camp for his ferocity. Tal is mistaken by the local law enforcement as an unwanted private investigator, falls in love with a local girl, and needs all the...
