Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Kansas State Normal School, Vol. 8: April, 1910; Supplement; Issued by the Latin Department This pamphlet is being distributed among the high schools of the state with the hope that it may contain a helpful message to the men and women already in the classical field and prove suggestive to those just entering upon its manifold duties. No study in the high-school course should be uninteresting to teacher or pupil. This is emphatically true of Latin. This subject is a vital force in education, a fact which is now being more fully realized in the practical, everyday life of the West than ever before. A wide-awake, well prepared, hard working teacher makes the Latin recitation fully as interesting and quite as productive of thought power as a recitation in any other subject. This booklet makes no claim as a remedy for all the ills in the pedagogical world. It is intended primarily to help high-school teachers with limited experience in the Latin classroom. For many of the suggestions credit is due to Professor Johnson,...
