Editions Dedicaces, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: French . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.La barque de vie est un formidable espoir de l'Humanité face à un des plus grands fleaux de notre époque qui est la maladie d'Alzheimer. Travailler auprès de ces personnes âgées atteintes de cette maladie exige une grande souplesse psychique et physique. C'est une véritable entreprise ethnologique au sens humaniste du terme pour aborder une des plus difficiles facettes de la compréhension de l'Homme: Je t'accompagne tel que tu es, avec tes capacités au jour le jour . L'Homme en démence est, contrairement à l'Homme en souffrance, protégé par sa propre maladie. Il se réfugie dans un monde parallèle où l'entreprise d'empathie de l'aidant, c'est-à-dire la capacité de se décentrer de ses propres normes, de ses propres schémas pour rejoindre la réalité de l'autre, est mise à rude épreuve: On ne sait quasiment rien de l'autre . . Écrire de la poésie sur la maladie d'Alzheimer permet ainsi sans artifices de prendre du recul par les mots doux et puissants d'une réalité qui peut être aussi merveilleuse que terrifiante pour la personne aidée. Le sujet est aussi inépuisable que le nombre de personnes amenées à se rencontrer. Sombres et lumineuses, ces poésies ne vous laisseront pas indifférent car la personne aidée est une personne si semblable à nous.
