

Making America Great: Immigrant Success Stories (Set) (Hardback)

By Various

Enslow Publishing, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. America is known for welcoming immigrants, but not everyone knows how much immigrants have given back. They've led the nation's top baseball teams to the World Series. Many have served their communities in public office and others have made amazing scientific breakthroughs. Chances are that your favorite devices and apps have also benefited from immigrant know-how, as many of the tech whizzes in the U.S. hail from abroad. The contributions immigrants have made don't always make headlines, but the U.S. would be unrecognizable without them. With this informative series, readers will get to know the immigrants who've made America great.
