RECORD OF THE CLASS. 1885 TO 1890. ALFRED MARSTON ALLEN. I have been engaged continuously in the general practice of the law here in Cincinnati since my graduation at the Cincinnati Law School in 1884. For the past year or so my attention has been given more particularly to patent law, and in connection with my work in this branch I have been obliged to visit many of the larger cities throughout the country. These business trips, however, comprise the extent of my travels. I have taken no part in politics and held no office, except as a member of the town council of Glendale, the suburban town fifteen miles from Cincinnati where I have always lived. I have two children: Marston, born June 29, 1887; Erastus, born June 23, 1889. LUTHER STETSON ANDERSON. 1. Address. --L. S. Anderson, Quincy, Mass., or 40...
