Persephone Fields is just an average girl: beloved daughter and loyal friend. One night decides her Fate, when the prince of The Underworld becomes her savior and her kidnapper. Hades has lived centuries in darkness and sin. When he decides to save the blonde goddess, he doesn't consider the ramifications of his decision to bring her into his realm. Two worlds divided struggle to find friendship in a history of family discord beyond their control. When attraction blurs the lines, questions result in choices of love or loyalty. A modern twist of the classic myth: Hades and Persephone, this version incorporates the sensual tension of opposites divided by contemporary humanity and mythical underworlds. Also reminiscent of Romeo and Juliet, this is a love story ripe with desire. +++++ Author Note: This story contains scenes of sexual intimacy.
