Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Madmen s Chronicle: Exemplified in the Conduct of George the Third, and His Ministers Towards the United States, From the Conclusion of the Treaty of Peace to the Present Time The success of freemen in a war, depends in a great degree on their conviction of its justice and necessity. Once made acquainted with its causes and its objects, once persuaded that their national honour and their national security are at stake, they will be likely to prosecute it with an ardor, unanimity and energy, which no perils, no difficulties can ever abate, and which are always the certain harbingers of victory and glory. In national as well as private affairs, a lapse of time serves to blunt, if not totally to eradicate, the resentment excited by unprovoked injury, even when inflicted by the ruthless hand of an insidious and inveterate foe. That this has been the case with America, there is strong proof in her forbearance and magnanimity. Many flagitious aggressions have, by the fluctuations of public sentiment, and from the distance of the period in which they were perpetrated, been obliterated from the recollection of many real friends of their country. To revive those scenes of outrage, rapine and murder in the minds of our countrymen - to keep alive the sacred flame, new lighted up - in a word, to promote a correct and general knowledge of the ostensible and efficient causes of the war in which we arc about to engage, are the objects of the following pages. Let no American imagine that we arc to take up arms merely to avenge the recent violation of our flag and our...
