Kellogg: Who Entered Into Rest October 16, 1889 Aged 43 Years and 10 Months When one who has been eminently useful in the home, society, church and Sunday school, is called from earthly ties and duties to a blessed entrance into the heavenly mansions, it is fitting some word of tribute and grateful appreciation of what she was to her many friends should be placed on record. Mary W. A. Kellogg was born in Hadley, Mass., Dec. 7th, 1845. She was the second daughter of Levi and Mary Wheeler Adams and was given her mother s name in baptism by Rev. Pomeroy Belden, July 2d, 1846, at East Amherst. In her childhood, her mother says, she was perfectly healthy with a happy, cheerful temperament that made her a joy in the home and to all who knew her. Beginning school at an early age, she passed through the various grades until at seventeen, she entered the normal school at Westfield, Mass., it being her desire to fit herself...
